For immediate release 5th February 2010

Kate St James, FDIA –

International Who's Who of Women

International Professional of the Year

Australian interior design and managing editor of Luxury Home Design magazine, Kate St James, FDIA has been selected as part of the prestigious collation by the International Biographical Centre, for its publication, World Who's Who of Women, 15th Edition.

The recently released publication was first published in 1972 to reflect the achievements, ambitions and accomplishments of the foremost illuminati in the World. Each woman's inclusion is independently considered on its merits and entry into the book cannot be booked or paid for.

Born in England, Kate St James leads a busy life full of design, journalism and editing, building a prestigious career within the elite design industry in Australia, as both a respected writer, interior designer and champion of the architecture and design professions.

Already featured in the 2008 and 2009 editions of the Australian Who's Who of Women Kate has her finger on the pulse within the design industry and is also a respected Fellow of the Design Institute of Australia, an organisation of which she has been a member for more than twenty years.

In recognition of Kate's achievements the Research and Advisory Board has also selected her as one of a very limited number of individuals to receive the important accolade of International Professional of the Year. This prestigious award is made available to only a few illustrious individuals whose achievements and leadership stand out in the International Community as decreed by the Research and Advisory Board, Cambridge.
